Liz Roth

Presents an evening program artist talk

June 27, 2011

8:00 p.m. McKee Amphitheater

Arizona

(From the American 101 project )
3" x 4" X 2" oil painting

Liz Roth is a visual artist from Oklahoma who depicts social concerns in a humorous way. For her most recent project, America 101, she went to all 50 states to create paintings emphasizing environmental costs resulting from consumerism. She has completed similar projects in Japan.

For this artist talk, Liz will present some examples of her US and Japanese projects, and discuss Overload, her current project at the Grand Canyon.

The artist-in-residence presentations are free, family-friendly, all-ages programs.
