Application Materials:

- Create a SlideRoom “user” account
- Complete online application form
- Current (electronic) grade transcript
- Electronic recommendation form from at least one (1) faculty member familiar with your work
- One 5-7 page Art History research paper for Art History majors.
OR Six (6) high-quality images of recent studio or graphic design work.

Formatting: documents may be either a Word Document or PDF. Each page may have 1-3 images of one project (example: one overall shot, close-up, different angles). Each work must have the following information: title, medium, size, date, and description (a few sentences of your concept / purpose). For video work, images should be screenshots of your video. Add a link to the video, with a maximum of 60 seconds of run time.

In order to be eligible for these awards:

- 1) You must be a currently enrolled student in good academic standing working towards a degree in Studio Art, Art History or Graphic Design at OSU. During the period of your award, you must take at least 12 credits each semester (unless otherwise indicated).
- 2) Current first year students are eligible to apply; it is expected that award recipients will have earned a minimum of 30 credits by the end of the summer 2019 term.
- 3) Awards will be based primarily on achievement within the department, with consideration given to overall academic success. Therefore, your GPA , the quality of your submitted works of art or written work (for art history majors), and the letter(s) of recommendation submitted on your behalf are the main criteria used by the Scholarship Committee in the Department of Art, Graphic Design and Art History in making these awards.
- 4) In order to be competitive for these scholarships, your departmental GPA should be at least 3.25, with a minimum 2.5 GPA overall.
- 5) Students who wish to be considered for the Dana, Lisa and Chris Tiger Endowed Scholarship must submit a short statement (100 words or less) on why they are eligible for this award.

Application implies consent of the applicant to have his or her records, including transcripts, viewed by the members of the Scholarship Committee of the Department, Graphic Design and Art History. It also implies consent for submitted materials to become the property of the department and to be used for promotional purposes. Successful applicants will be informed of their award by the end of February.

Oklahoma State University is committed to a policy of nondiscrimination on the basis of age, race, gender, religion, national origin, creed, handicap, marital, or parental status in all matters relating to admission, educational programs, activities, and employment as specified by state and federal regulations and all applicable laws.
